Frankie Bruno
Full Stack Web Developer

👤 Profile

Hailing from New Orleans, Louisiana, I am a full-stack web developer with 2 years experience trained at the Nashville Software School. My expertise lies in HTML5, CSS, JavaScript, React, Django, and Node.js, with a focus on practical, hands-on development projects. Beyond my technical skills, I have a strong business background, underscored by my successful management and sale of Snowbuzz in 2022. This combination of technical proficiency and entrepreneurial success positions me as a versatile and dynamic professional, ideally suited for innovative tech environments.
